

The 1st National Student Housing Fair

May 14 & 15, 2019 at the Corum® of Montpellier

Les Crous : Campus Home

Presentation

On May 14, 2019, at Corum® in Montpellier, will open the first fair devoted to student housing Crous' network.

This first and major event in the Crous network, will be a special moment to highlight the significant changes in student housing, worn by the Crous, from their creation until today.

" Tomorrow student housing" will be at the heart of the debates with exhibitions, conferences and round tables that will punctuate the show to trace the main trends expected of this new housing, focused on the student, its uses, needs, expectations.

A special focus will be on the action of the Crous to turn this residence into a real place where life is good and that helps to live together.

Finally, housing professions will be honored through their diversity and their mutations always for the students needs.
